Order of Publication by Clerk in Vacation

In the circuit court of Bollinger county, Missouri, March term, A. D. 1914.

Benjamin Greer, plaintiff, vs. W. F. Richardson and Myrtle D. Richardson, his wife, and W. W. Hilderbrand, defendants.

Civil action to foreclose mortgage.

Now, on this the 13th day of January, 1914, in vacation, comes the plaintiff and files herein his petition verified by the oath of W. K. Chandler, his agent and attorney, in which petition plaintiff alleges default in the payment of a certain note and the interest thereon secured by a deed of trust described in his said petition and in which said petition it is alleged that all the defendants in the above entitled action are non-residents of the state of Missouri, and upon whom the ordinary summons can not be served.

Wherefore, it is ordered by the clerk aforesaid, in vacation, that the said defendants be notified by publication that the plaintiff has commenced an action against them in said court, the object and general nature of which is to foreclose the mortgage hereinafter described on the following described real estate in Bollinger county, Missouri to-wit: All of the west half of the southwest quarter and the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 8, township 29, north of range 9, east of the 3th p. m. containing 120 acres, more or less; that on the 28th day of May, 1910, defendants executed to one R. D. Garber a certain mortgage on the above described lands to secure the payment of a certain promissory note of $1000.00 dated the 28th day of May, 1910, and due and payable five years after date; said mortgage being recorded in the recorder's office of Bollinger county, Mo. in volume 38 at page 282 of the land deed records of Bollinger county, Mo. And that R. D. Garber has assigned said note and deed of trust and that plaintiff is now the legal holder and owner of said note and deed of trust and that on account of certain irregularities and defects recited in the said deed of trust which prevents plaintiff from lawfully foreclosing the same by sale in the ordinary way, recourse is had by him to the court for the purposes of enforcing his lien upon the said premises.

It is thereupon ordered by the clerk aforesaid in vacation that publication be made notifying the said defendants W. F. Richardson and Myrtle D. Richardson, his wife, and W. W. Hilderbrand, that an action has been commenced against them by petition in the Circuit court of Bollinger county and state of Missouri, the nature of which is to obtain a judgement upon the note above described and an order of foreclosure of the said mortgage or deed of trust above mentioned for the purpose of paying the said debt and judgement and that unless the said W. F. Richardson and Myrtle D. Richardson his wife, and W. W. Hilderbrand appear at the next March term of said court to be held at the courthouse in the town of Marble Hill, within the county of Bollinger, in the state of Missouri, on the 9th day of March, 1914, and on or before the first day thereof answer or plead to plaintiff's petition the same will be taken as confessed as to them and judgement rendered accordingly. It is therefore, ordered that a copy hereof be published in THE MARBLE HILL PRESS, a weekly newspaper published in the county of Bollinger for four weeks successively, that the last insertion be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the March term of court.

The State of Missouri, to all of the above named defendants greeting.

Youtate hereby notified that above named plaintiffs have this day filed with the undersigned clerk of the Circuit court of Bollinger county, Missouri, in vacation, their petition, duly verified by affidavit, wherein said plaintiffs allege that the defendants, upon some title, estate or interest in the subject matter of said petition and the lands hereinafter described, that the said defendants, Daniel J. Albus and inserting therein in lieu thereof, the name Hetta M. Albers, so as to make the said deed agree with and conform to the agreement and intentions of the parties thereto and also seeks to forever bar and preclude all the said defendants and each of them, from setting up any interest or claim in or to said real estate adversely to said plaintiffs or either of them, and which said action is returnable to and triable on the first day of the next regular term of this court, to be holden at the courthouse in the town of Marble Hill, in the county of Bollinger in the state of Missouri on the 9th day of March, 1914, at which time and place said defendants are required and commanded to appear and to plead, answer or demur to plaintiff's said petition, otherwise the allegations contained in said petition will be taken and considered as confessed and judgement rendered according to the prayer thereof, reforming and correcting said deed, and forever barring and precluding said defendants from hereafter setting up any claim or title to said real property.

Of Interest to Shippers

St. Louis, January 21.—A circular which should prove of interest to shippers all over the country has been issued by the traffic department of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain. The matter contained in the document is based on information furnished by Mr. H. C. Dinkins, special representative of the railroad, who some time ago was assigned the duty of visiting the Latin American countries and making a study of trade conditions and opportunities there.

This particular circular, which is one of a series to be issued, the same lines, deals principally with conditions in Chile and Argentine Republic, two of the countries visited by Mr. Dinkins, and gives much valuable first-hand information with reference to shipping facilities at the principal cities, the names of the foremost shipping and forwarding agents, the more important articles of import and export and the commodities of which the different shipping concerns make specialties. The principal lines of industry are also set forth as well as the natural resources of the countries. According to the report, the merchants and dealers of the South American countries are anxious for better service from the gulf ports.

Of the citizens of the southern hemisphere, Buenos Aires, the capital of the Argentine Republic, with a population of 1,400,000, is the largest and most important. It is a busy up-to-date place, the business section of which reminds one of New York or Chicago. An ample system of subways built by an English company has just been completed to relieve the congestion in the business district. There is need for American banks there, as at present the United States must depend entirely upon European banks to make their collections, thereby disclosing to Europe their business affairs. The trade of Argentina at present is controlled largely by Great Britain and Germany, although many big United States firms have representatives there.

Mr. Dinkins believes that the opening of the Panama canal will enable the United States to do a much larger business with Chile, where the English have decidedly the better of the trade at present. Santiago, the capital of the country, has a population of 403,000, but most of the business is done through Valparaiso, the principal seaport. The latter has a population of 233,000, and most of the principal business houses in Santiago and other points are branches of Valparaiso concerns.

At present, financial conditions are bad in Chile, Peru and Bolivia and business in these three countries is largely at a standstill.
